The course deals with ethical challenges corporations are facing: In their societal context, they are expected to manage the social and environmental side-effects of their supply chains and internally, they are confronted with the risk of illegal and immoral behavior of their employees and leaders.

Business Ethics - 29th - 30th June 2020
- The role of business in society
- Ethical and unethical decision making
- Managing organisational integrity
- Managing organisational ethics
- Corporate social responsibility
- Global business and global societies
- The transformation of society

Top speaker
- Prof. Dr. Guido Palazzo, University of Lausanne, HEC

What our students said
- Eye opener course
- This course add a value to the moral fibre of modern leaders